Twelve Week Training Syllabus

for After School Enrichment Program with Coeur du Petit Lion

Week One: The parts of the sword, the grip, first position, the salute, the on-guard position.

Week Two: Review Week One add the fencing advance and retreat

Week Three: The mask is introduced. Review Weeks One and Two and add aiming and hitting techniques individually and in twos.

Week Four: Review aiming and hitting and add the lunge and the advance and lunge techniques of fencing.

Week Five: Review hitting and lunging with partners and add parry six.

Week Six: Review the parry six and add the parry four. Allow for the choice of a parry four or a parry six with and without a pattern on a partner. Note the differences.

Week Seven: Review the parry six and four and add a lunge with an aim and hit.

Week Eight: Review the parry six and four with a lunge aim and hit and add the blade tapping technique and then a first parry repost.

Week Nine: Review the parry six and four with a lunge aim and hit and continue the blade tapping technique and then a first counter parry repost.

Congratulations to all fencing students, "you are now fencing!"

Week Ten: Learn the parry seven and hand position five with a lunge aim and hit and continue the blade tapping technique and then a first counter parry repost.

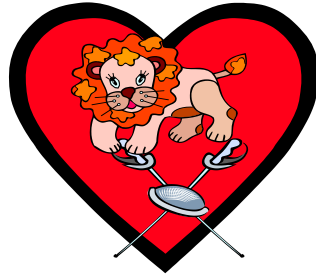

Week Eleven: Learn the concept of 'Deception': checking, faint, disengage, repost Practice with one practitioner being the 'puppeteer' and the other the 'puppet'.

Week Twelve:

Review:

All important fencing points learned thus far.
